

Summary of 2012 Senate and Assembly Election Results and Redistricting Seat Changes (as of January 28, 2013)

Legislature Begins 2013-2014 Session with 39 New Legislators

The November 6 statewide general election resulted in 39 first-time legislators: one Senator and 38 Assembly members. Office of Governmental Affairs advocates will meet with incoming legislators during January and February to acquaint them with the Judicial Council and with OGA's role and responsibilities, and to offer to serve as a resource on judicial branch matters.

Here's how the Senate and Assembly turnover breaks down:

California State Senate

State Senate seats in the 20 odd-numbered districts were on the November 2012 ballot. Of those 20:

- Eleven incumbents were seeking reelection;
- Six current members were term limited and ineligible to run for reelection (four Democrats and two Republicans);
- Three incumbent senators were eligible but chose not to seek reelection (three Republicans);
- Eight seats were won by senators who previously served in the Assembly; and
- The 4th Senate District seat, vacated by Doug La Malfa (R-Butte) when he was elected to the U.S. Congress, has been filled by Sen. Jim Nielsen (R-Gerber) after a Special Election on January 8, 2013. Sen. Nielsen chose not to run for re-election in the 2nd Assembly District in order to run for the California Senate.
- Two Senate seats are currently vacant; a special election to fill both seats is scheduled for May 14, 2013, with the primary on March 12, 2013:
 - The 32nd Senate District seat was vacated by Gloria Negrete Mcleod (D-Chino) who was elected to the U.S. Congress.
 - The 40th Senate District seat was vacated by Juan Vargas (D-San Diego) who was elected to the U.S. Congress.
